EXTRA PAY FOR EXTRA WORK

Teachers will be expected to assume reasonable duties over and above their regular teaching responsibilities. Activities and services which make minor demands on the teacher's time shall be part of each teacher's basic assignment. Administrators will strive to equalize such duties among teachers.

Extra responsibilities that make major demands on a teacher's time shall be rewarded with extra compensation. Such jobs, and the compensation therefore, shall be in accordance with the current negotiated agreement, and shall be assigned with approval of the Board.

EXTRA PAY FOR EXTRA WORK

Payment for extra work will be by approval of the Board within the following guidelines:

1. Teachers may be compensated only for those extracurricular activities which have Board authorization and approval.
2. No teachers may expect to be compensated unless there has been executed a properly signed agreement between said employees and the Board.
3. The designation and assignment of faculty to perform extracurricular activities must be finalized by a Board motion approved at a public meeting.
4. The principals will recommend to the Superintendent all personnel and extracurricular programs for which Board endorsement is sought.
