

celebrate
KINDNESS

GLSEN
NO NAME-CALLING WEEK

January 15th - 19th

Schools across the nation recognize and celebrate kindness and respect!

#LyndhurstNoNameCallingWeek

#LyndhurstChoosesKindness

The Lyndhurst Public Schools pledge to continue to:
SUPPORT KINDNESS,
CELEBRATE DIVERSITY and facilitate activities that promote a safe school environment,
FREE of name-calling, bullying and bias.

Below is a district framework of our daily themes for the 2018 national campaign; please check individual school websites for scheduled events!

Monday, January 15th Amazing Me, Amazing Us

Recognize positivity and use appropriate, uplifting words to describe ourselves and our peers

Tuesday, January 16th Rules are Important

Explore the significant role that rules and laws play in our families, schools, and society

Wednesday, January 17th Name Calling; Why it Hurts and How to Help Stop It

Realize that words/name-calling can cause real pain and identify ways to stop others from name-calling

Thursday, January 18th Sportsmanship

Focus on how sportsmanship makes all competition more worthwhile and all players stronger

Friday, January 19th Unique and Wonderful Me

Celebrate the unique qualities of each member of our community!

From Fiction to Reality...No Name-Calling Week was inspired by the popular young adult novel entitled The Misfits by James Howe.

For more information on No Name-Calling Week, please visit:

<http://www.glsen.org/nonamecallingweek>